CORPORATE TEAMS BRAISE AND BOND OVER A HOT STOVE!

“Unexpected.” “Unforgettable.” “Lasting impact!”

Take 100 knife wielding, whisk waving executives in aprons, led by a four-star team of top chefs, all in one large room at the Ritz Carlton at Half Moon Bay. Combine with great food made from the freshest ingredients, good wine, and hip music and you’ve got the most popular event at a Barclays Global Investor conference this spring and the great reviews above!

Gourmet Gatherings is San Francisco’s premiere gourmet entertainment company. They stage hands-on cooking parties and corporate teambuilding events in private homes and rented professional kitchens all across San Francisco’s Bay Area, Los Angeles and Chicago. Clients hire Gourmet Gatherings to lead culinary teambuilding events for 20 employees to over 100.

In addition to Barclays, some of their corporate clients include American Express, e-Bay, the New York Times, Pfizer, Wal-Mart, and Wells Fargo among others, as well as top law firms and advertising agencies. At a Gourmet Gatherings event, professional chefs kick off the experience with fun cooking tips and then provide guidance to attendees who are divided into culinary teams and prepare recipes from a gourmet menu developed by the star chefs.

In addition to our regular menus, we’ve recently extended our brand to include GourmetRx. At this new event for corporate clients, a professional chef and a doctor are on hand to give guests a nutritional framework for healthier cooking and eating – all with the same team spirit!

NBC’s the Today Show, the Food Network and Better Homes and Gardens magazine have recently featured stories on Gourmet Gatherings.
